

KYOWA PATENT AND LAW OFFICE

協和特許法律事務所

Design Department

---

Satoru Asakura

---

Mr. Asakura graduated from Chiba University, Department of Industrial Designs, Faculty of Engineering in March of 1974, and from its master's course in March of 1976. He was registered as a patent attorney in February of 1994. He has 13 years' experience working at the JPO as an examiner, 4 years' experience working at Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI) and worked at a patent firm for 12 years before joining Kyowa Patent and Law Office. He was one of the writers of "JPO's Standard Text for Industrial Property Rights (Design)" published by JIII in 2001. His specialties are designs in general and his foreign language is English.

Kazuhiko Yazaki

---

In March of 1969, Mr. Yazaki graduated from Chuo University, the Department of Law and in November of 1979 he was registered as a patent attorney. Since then, he has specialized in designs and trademarks in general and has written "Distinctiveness of Trademarks" (The Invention, Vol. 87, No. 2). His foreign language is English.

Satoru Arai

---

Mr. Arai graduated from Nihon University, in March of 1995. He was registered as a patent attorney in December of 1997. His areas of specialty are design and trademark in general. His foreign language is English.

Masashi Kurose

---

After graduation from the Department of Engineering of Kyoto Institute of Technology in March of 1970, Mr. Kurose worked for four years as a designer for machinery manufacturing company. He was registered as a patent attorney in November of 1977, and his specialties are mechanical engineering in general, designs and trademarks. One of his major articles is "Intellectual Property in Asian Countries". In 2002, he received a LL.M. from Graduate School of Hitotsubashi University. He has broad experience in the field of counterfeiting matters in Asian countries. His foreign language is English.

Junpei Okada

---

Dr. Okada graduated from Tohoku University's Science Department with a degree in Physics in March of 1969. He went on to graduate from Kyoto University's doctorate course in science in March of 1974. He was a university lecturer for four years and later worked at the development section and the patent section of a precision instrument manufacturing company for nine years. In November of 1988 he became a registered patent attorney specializing in quantum electronics, optics and measurement. His foreign language is English.